Portugal

Sep 2016 – Aug 2018

Overview

Contribute to an active engagement of citizens as co-creators of a more sustainable, decent and fairer society, by enhancing young adults' life skills, within an innovative and creative approach, through the development and dissemination of pedagogic tourist routes, that urge the reflection and action towards social transformation.

Activities | Results

- Enhance young adults' life skills through a pedagogic and innovative Global Citizenship Education (ECG) approach.
- Strengthen civil society's young adults' skills so as to better perceive the glocal connections and to act as multiplier agents.
- Create a pedagogic touristic routes market where global and local subjects are approached in an interdependent perspective.
- Foster a website that comprises reflection, activities, management and project's results.
