Food Value Chain

Agribusiness is more than farming

It is a business sector integrating farming and farming-related commercial activities, embracing all the steps required to place an agricultural good on the market: production, processing and distribution. From producer to consumer.

- Agricultural inputs (seeds, fertilisers, crop protection, machinery, irrigation and knowledge)
- Agro-industry (food and beverages; textile; wood and wood products; rubber products...)
- Processing equipment (machinery, tools, storage facilities, cooling technology and spare parts...)
- Agriculture related services (financing, marketing, distribution, storage, transport, packaging)
